Mothers Prayers Afternoon (11 May)

Venue: Our lady Queen of Peace

Time: 2.30 - 4.30pm

Mothers Prayers was founded in 1995 by two sisters who felt called to pray for their children. There are now thousands of groups in more than 85 countries who meet regularly to pray for their children, asking the Holy Spirit to guide them.

Thy Kingdom Come (9 - 19 May)

Two events have been organised by CTiS:

1 A Prayer Walk starting at St Nicholas' and ending at All Saints' where refreshments will be available (6.30-9.00pm on Thursday 16 May).

2 Prayer Stations at Immanuel. Call in to pray, reflect or meditate. Refreshments and light lunches available. (10am-2.00pm on Saturday 18 May)

The organ at St Katharine's

Much-needed repairs are soon to be carried out. Contributions towards the cost, of just over £6000, would be gratefully received.

In order to raise funds for the repair, Bob Hammond is going to sing all 150 Psalms over three days - good luck with Psalm 119 which has 176 verses - which is quite a challenge. Sponsorship forms are at the back of our churches.

Do you have a beach hut?

Would you be happy to let some needy families have a day out at a beach hut, with food, during the school holidays? If you could help or, if you could donate food, money or time, please contact the Parish Office.
